

SuperOrbital Joins Cloud Foundry Foundation

California – February 14th – SuperOrbital, LLC announced today that it has joined the Cloud Foundry Foundation, home of the most widely-adopted open source cloud technologies in the world, as a Silver Member. SuperOrbital joins Dell EMC, Google, HPE, IBM, Pivotal, SAP and VMware, in addition to prominent end user members American Airlines, Fidelity, Ford, Home Depot, Volkswagen, and more than 60 other technology innovators as a Foundation member. Through its membership, SuperOrbital demonstrates its commitment to working with the Foundation and the community to push forward Cloud Foundry as the global industry-standard cloud application platform.

“Cloud Foundry continues to prove itself as the only truly production grade application and container platform, and SuperOrbital is very excited to help support and take part in the growing community around it,” said Tammer Saleh, founder, SuperOrbital, and former VP of Engineering at Pivotal.

“We welcome SuperOrbital to the Cloud Foundry Community,” said Abby Kearns, Executive Director, Cloud Foundry Foundation. “As more companies embrace cloud-native applications in a multi-cloud world, it’s essential to have a vibrant, expanding community.”

About Cloud Foundry Foundation

The Cloud Foundry Foundation is an independent non-profit open source organization formed to sustain the development, promotion and adoption of Cloud Foundry as the industry standard for delivering the best developer experiences to companies of all sizes. The Foundation projects include Cloud Foundry Application Runtime, Cloud Foundry Container Runtime, BOSH, Open Service Broker API, Abacus, CF-Local, CredHub, ServiceFabrik, Stratos and more. Cloud Foundry makes it faster and easier to build, test, deploy and scale applications, and is used by more than half the Fortune 500, representing nearly $15 trillion in combined revenue. Cloud Foundry is hosted by The Linux Foundation and is an Apache 2.0 licensed project available on Github: <https://github.com/cloudfoundry>. To learn more, visit: <http://www.cloudfoundry.org>.

SuperOrbital provides Agile and cloud native development, consulting, and training.
